Re: Case Identifier: CGB-CC-1285

Dear Mr. Yanez:

The Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau (Bureau) of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) advises you that, for the reasons stated below, your above-referenced petition for exemption from the FCC's closed captioning rules has been dismissed as incomplete.

The Bureau advised you by letter dated April 2, 2013, that, unless you submitted the information and materials outlined in the Bureau's letter that were missing from your petition by May 3, 2013, your petition would be dismissed on July 3, 2013.<sup>1</sup> As requested by the Bureau and as cautioned in the Bureau's letter, your petition was dismissed without prejudice on July 3, 2013, because you failed to submit the following:

- documentation of your financial status;
- information about the costs associated with captioning your program; and
- verification that you have sought closed captioning assistance from your video programming distributor.

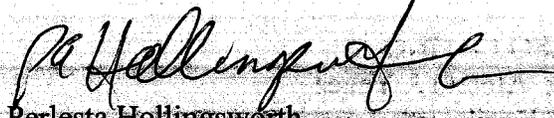

We remind you that, as also noted in the Bureau's letter, with this dismissal, you must comply with the FCC's closed captioning requirements contained in Part 79 of the FCC's rules with regard to the programming that was the subject of your petition.

<sup>1</sup> All of the information and materials noted in the Bureau's letter is required. Anglers for Christ Ministries, Inc., Memorandum Opinion and Order, Order, and Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, FCC 11-159, 26 FCC Rcd 14941, 14955-6, ¶ 28 (2011).

Please visit <http://www.fcc.gov/encyclopedia/economically-burdensome-exemption-closed-captioning-requirements> for specific information that must be provided in a petition for exemption from the closed captioning requirements. If you have questions pertaining to this matter contact the FCC's Disability Rights Office at captioningexemption@fcc.gov.

Sincerely,

Perlesta Hollingsworth
