Re: Morality in Media

Dear Sir/Madam:

I was surprised to receive from your office the "Consumer Guide" regarding "Obscene, Indecent and Profane Broadcasts" instead of a letter from your office as a response. All you did was place this material in an envelope for me to decide what should be the restrictions on the TV Show, "Mistresses" on ABC Monday night at 10 PM.

These scenes occurred within a couple seconds after the show began at 10 PM so according to the statute, they do not fit into the indecency definition for shows that air between 6:00 AM and 10:00 PM and are prohibited and subject to indecency enforcement action. In those few seconds and/or minutes after 10:00 PM, this sordid way of life can be shown to our pre-teens or teenagers.

And we wonder why promiscuity prevails in our country with results of very young mothers, unwanted pregnancies, abortions, and ruined lives. This immoral culture in our country has not been decided by the majority but by the minority who make the so-called "laws". I understand that "I am speaking to the choir" and obviously, you will do nothing. Very, very sad and shocking!

Sincerely,

Rose Benner

Re: "Television Show "Mistresses"

Dear Sir/Madam:

It's been a month since I sent you my letter to you regarding your immoral show "The Mistresses" and you have completely ignored my correspondence.

Obviously, you don't care about the depravity shown in this airtime and how its content can affect our young in a grossly negative way. Apparently, you're only interested in its monetary value and not in its moral value.

My friends, family and I have always watched the ABC shows and news but now we have to look to another network for decency on the TV. You should be ashamed of exposing your viewers to this sordid way of life.

Sincerely,

Rose Benner
