

I want to see more captions in Spanish. TV news should all be required to have Spanish captions. And the speed of captions need to match the words being spoken.

Also many deaf and hard of hearing people who do not read English or Spanish well need to have live interpreting for TV programs, especially news programs.

Many Hispanic deaf and hard of hearing people cannot read English and need ASL interpreting to access television programming.