

Local broadcast station vs Directv service. Free stations such as FOX & NBC should not be charging high fees for the consumer to receive "free" television broadcasts. Negotiating fees 3 times higher than previously charged is price gouging and is not fair to the general consumer.