

I was contacted by someone from a DC area code (phone number 202-210-0054) stating that they were with the Federal government and I qualified for a $9,000 tax free reimbursement, which would be given to me if I provided my checking account information. Knowing this was likely a scam, I said I was not interested and the person (female, foreign accent) immediately terminated the call.