

Commercial differential loudness from primary programming seems to be increasing and is adversely affecting my hearing. In homes with children and seniors the impact on household members is adverse. Excessive sound in our environments is just like second hand smoke: we are all going deaf and lack of regulation fails to protect us. PLEASE regulate commercial volume to no greater than 2 increments above program sound (currently seems to be around 5-6)