On or around September South Baltimore Learning Center (SBLC) submitted to USAC an appeal to request the release of funds held for one of South Baltimore Learning Center's E-Rate services. USAC informed SBLC that its funding for its long distance service would be reduced because SBLC filed the Form 486 outside of the 120 day filing period. In the appeal SBLC informed USAC the initial 486 was filed within the window but was cancelled by the service provider due to the service provider combining companies and having a new FRN. SBLC was told to request a FRN change and resubmit the 486. SBLC completed the necessary forms to USAC and provided regular inquiries as to the status of the change, but no information was given. As time passed SBLC finally received a letter with the new FRN and on the same day of receipt SBLC filed the 486 with the new FRN. Due to the delay of getting a new FRN from USAC the 120 filing period has lapsed. Which resulted in SBLC's funding being reduced. SBLC is asking the FCC in this appeal to reverse the decision of USAC and release the funds to SBLC.
