I am writing this letter to let you know that I want more reinforcement of broadcast decency laws, not less. (13-86)

My family members and I are fed up with the nudity, f-bombs, kinky sex, fetishes, and orgies on prime time shows. We are Christians and this filth that is on TV is the opposite of everything we teach our children. We adults have been fed up with the type TV shows we have for some time. Unfortunately, we have become the silent majority. There are so many of us.

Thank goodness I grew up with "I Love Lucy". Lucy and Desi were married but they slept in separate beds. That show was popular, entertaining, and made one laugh. It was not dirty, no profanity, and no dirty jokes. Please give us more shows like this. More Hallmark shows, more channels like PBS- Downton Abbey, mystery shows such as Agatha Christi adventures: Orient Express, Hercule Poirot, etc. Roy Rogers and Dale Evans westerns always sent a good message.

Please give us some clean channels, choices with comedy, mysteries, clean cartoons. Travel shows for those that would like to travel and for shut-ins that could remember past trips – not eating bugs and gorging on sickening foods.

Please bring back Paula Deen on Food Channel.

We are hungry and thirsty for clean entertainment. We do not watch the reality shows that are silly and send bad messages.

I have Dish Network, so many channels. I only watch the ones I have referenced in this letter. How sad, paying for so many channels I do not approve of.

Thank you,
