

7520961084.txt

I am in favor of this proposal. The rest of the amateur radio operators in the world do not have this restrictive symbol rate requirement that is in the current Part 97.

Adopting this proposal will assist in the future development of digital communication systems for emergency communications.