

7520961271.txt

I fully support this modernization of Part 97.

There is no negative impact on any party. There is no change in band plans or bandwidth, just a way to make more efficient use of the currently used bandwidth.

This will allow developers to continue to innovate in modern digital communications.

Please accept the proposed rule change and allow US hams to benefit from modern digital modes being used regularly in nearly all other countries.