

7520961395.txt

I believe this proceeding (rulemaking) should be approved because the use of Factor 4 simply makes the use of existing bandwidth more efficient, so additional traffic can be passed without allocating new frequencies. I also believe that its approval will further the development of even faster protocols within the same bandwidth limitations.