

7520961463.txt

I agree with this petition. Using a bandwidth limit rather than a symbol rate limit will allow for a more efficient use available spectrum and allow for better innovation in the digital modulation field.

The use of faster digital modulation schemes will also enhance emergency communications that the amateur radio community provides to various government and NGO served agencies to better serve the population in times of need.