

7520961666.txt

I fully support RM-11708 to remove the symbol rate limitation from FCC rules.

With today's radio's digital integration, low bandwidth modes are capable of much higher symbol rates than were achievable in the past.

Increasing the symbol rates, without increasing bandwidth allocations, will greatly facilitate experimentation and provide technological modernity for a huge number of radio operators.