Re: Notification of Ex Parte Presentation, CG Docket Nos. 02-278, 05-338

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On December 12, 2013, Staples, Inc. (“Staples”) and its wholly owned subsidiary Quill Corporation (“Quill”), represented by G. Perry Wu of Staples, the undersigned of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, and Thomas R. McCarthy of Wiley Rein LLP, met with Kris Monteith, Acting Chief of the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau; Mark Stone, Deputy Chief of the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau; Aaron Garza, Legal Advisor, Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau; Kurt Schroeder, Chief of the Consumer Policy Division & Information Access & Privacy Office; Nancy Stevenson, Deputy Chief of the Consumer Policy Division & Information Access & Privacy Office; and Richard Smith, Special Counsel, Consumer Policy Division & Information Access & Privacy Office, regarding the Petition of Staples, Inc. and Quill Corporation for Rulemaking and Declaratory Ruling, CG Docket Nos. 02-278, 05-338 (“Petition”), filed with the Federal Communications Commission (“FCC”) on July 19, 2013.

At this meeting, we discussed the Petition and the problem of proliferating class-action lawsuits under the Solicited Fax Rule.

Sincerely,

/s/ Helgi C. Walker
