

7520962323.txt

The proposed change is fair and appropriate and will allow advancements in the best interest of the community and the nation. In particular, the change does not alter bandwidth limits or frequencies available for digital transmissions. Therefore no new frequency space will be used. Further, Factor 4 is a more efficient protocol and will therefore allow more traffic by more users using the existing frequencies. This later point - that more information can be transmitted in existing frequencies will ensure adequate access for all users.