

7520962348.txt

Please continue to support a strong and clear AM band for radio broadcasting in America. It simply is vital to many areas of our country, is an excellent source of information and can be used more effectively in an emergency situation. It helps foster overall commerce in the communications industry in America also. Thank you for your time.