

7520963058.txt

While the symbol rate regulations are limiting, changing that will do nothing as long as the restrictions on specified and unspecified codes are left in.

The ARS regulations should remove all references to specified and unspecified codes in the Data emissions, as they have done in Phone and Image emissions.

Respectfully submitted,
Steve Sampson, K50KC