

7521066009.txt

My family and I strongly support the motion to allow use of the "f-word" and non-sexual nudity on television and radio. I feel like all censorship on television and radio is absolutely ridiculous. They are only words. The naked human body is also not a bad thing at all. It's natural and the ban needs to be lifted. Also If parents do not want their children viewing or hearing such thing, there are always parental locks.