

7521066822.txt

Doing a certain amount of long distance flying, I am against a change in flight requirements that would allow passengers to use their cell phones during flights. Certainly people can live without their phones for a few hours without annoying their fellow travelers by forcing them to listen to their private conversations. I beg you to please continue the restrictions on use of cell phones during flights. Thank you for your kind consideration and may God Bless You!!