

7521068078.txt

Good Day.

I dread the thought of being seated beside somebody who spends most of the flight talking on their cellphones. This is especially true for those who hold the cellphone in front of their mouths and talk loud enough so that the whole world can hear them.

Thanks.

Evelyn A. Shemley