

7521068086.txt

So sad for children to not experience a childhood full of innocence. Children need to not see certain things in order to benefit from the full journey of childhood. i highly disagree with the proposed actions to change current regulations on television. If passed, i will not watch cable whatsoever, and know many that feel the same.