

Every region has different priorities with regard to economic and cultural vitality. In the Adirondacks, the priority must be on preserving its essential 'forever wild' character. Localities and states should retain the right to review and determine those priorities in collaboration with the federal government. Please help preserve the Adirondack wilderness from the blight of cell phone towers that are not part of a wilderness preserving beauty preserving master plan.

Thank you
Marian moore