

I understand that Comcast has an internet access program for low income families but one of the requirements is that they have a child in a lunch program. I am an elderly person living in low income housing. Is there a similar program for us? I understand there is a program in WA state. How can I apply for this in PA?