Re: Case Identifier: CGB-CC-1288
CG Docket No. 06-181
Petition for Closed Captioning Exemption
Dismissal of Petition

Dear Mr. Pyke:

The Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau (Bureau) of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) advises you that, for the reasons stated below, your above-referenced petition for exemption from the FCC's closed captioning rules has been dismissed as incomplete.

The Bureau advised you by letter dated September 26, 2013, that, unless you submitted the information and materials outlined in the Bureau's letter that were missing from your petition by October 28, 2013, your petition would be dismissed.<sup>1</sup> As cautioned in the Bureau's letter, your petition is dismissed without prejudice as of the date of this letter, February 4, 2014, because you failed to submit complete documentation of your financial resources to show that providing closed captioning would be economically burdensome.

We remind you that, as also noted in the Bureau's letter, with this dismissal, you must comply with the FCC's closed captioning requirements contained in Part 79 of the FCC's rules with regard to the programming that was the subject of your petition.

<sup>1</sup> All of the information and materials noted in the Bureau's letter is required. Anglers for Christ Ministries, Inc., Memorandum Opinion and Order, Order, and Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, FCC 11-159, 26 FCC Rcd 14941, 14955-6, ¶ 28 (2011).

Please visit <http://www.fcc.gov/encyclopedia/economically-burdensome-exemption-closed-captioning-requirements> for specific information that must be provided in a petition for exemption from the closed captioning requirements. If you have questions pertaining to this matter, please contact the FCC's Disability Rights Office at captioningexemption@fcc.gov.

Sincerely,
