

7521072099.txt

I am not in favor of allowing cell phone calls while on board an aircraft. As this is a severely confined environment, it is a violation of my freedoms to require me to listen to the person 2 feet away from me talking on a phone for four hours. If this rule is approved, violence on aircraft will increase significantly.