

7521072379.txt

I urge the FCC to rule in favor of the United Healthcare petition.

If I've given my permission to a company to call my cell phone, they should not be fined or sued if they try to reach me there if I've since changed my phone's number without telling them.