Re: Case Identifier: CGB-CC-0949
CG Docket No. 06-181
Petition for Closed Captioning Exemption
Dismissal of Petition

Dear Mr. Thompson:

The Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau (Bureau) of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) advises you that, for the reasons stated below, your above-referenced petition for exemption from the FCC's closed captioning rules has been dismissed as incomplete.

The Bureau advised you by letter dated November 5, 2013, that, unless you submitted the information and materials outlined in the Bureau's letter that were missing from your petition by December 5, 2013, your petition would be dismissed.¹ As cautioned in the Bureau's letter, your petition is dismissed without prejudice as of the date of this letter, on February 11, 2014, because you failed to submit the following

- documentation of your financial status as described in our November 5, 2013, letter;
- information about the costs associated with captioning your program including at least two estimates made within one year of our November 5, 2013, letter that were specific to your program and annualized;
- verification that you have sought closed captioning assistance from your video programming distributor; and
- verification that you have sought additional sponsorship sources or other sources of revenue for captioning.

We remind you that, as also noted in the Bureau's letter, with this dismissal, you must comply with the FCC's closed captioning requirements contained in Part 79 of the FCC's rules with regard to the programming that was the subject of your petition.

¹ All of the information and materials noted in the Bureau's letter is required. Anglers for Christ Ministries, Inc., Memorandum Opinion and Order, Order, and Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, FCC 11-159, 26 FCC Rcd 14941, 14955-6, ¶ 28 (2011).

Please visit <http://www.fcc.gov/encyclopedia/economically-burdensome-exemption-closed-captioning-requirements> for specific information that must be provided in a petition for exemption from the closed captioning requirements. If you have questions pertaining to this matter, please contact the FCC's Disability Rights Office at captioningexemption@fcc.gov.

Sincerely,

Roger Holberg
