Re: Case Identifier: CGB-CC-0651
CG Docket No. 06-181
Petition for Closed Captioning Exemption
Dismissal of Petition

Dear Mr. Hastings:

The Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau (Bureau) of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) advises you that, for the reasons stated below, your above-referenced petition for exemption from the FCC's closed captioning rules has been dismissed as incomplete.

The Bureau advised you by letter dated September 26, 2013, that, unless you submitted the information and materials outlined in the Bureau's letter that were missing from your petition by October 28, 2013, your petition would be dismissed.¹ As cautioned in the Bureau's letter, your petition is dismissed without prejudice as of the date of this letter, on February 11, 2014, because you did not submit all the required documentation of your financial status. More specifically, you needed to submit an audited financial statement or an accountant's review or compilation of financial statements or complete tax returns (for a sole proprietorship); and complete balance sheets, for the most recent two years.

We remind you that, as also noted in the Bureau's letter, with this dismissal, you must comply with the FCC's closed captioning requirements contained in Part 79 of the FCC's rules with regard to the programming that was the subject of your petition.

Please visit <http://www.fcc.gov/encyclopedia/economically-burdensome-exemption-closed-captioning-requirements> for specific information that must be provided in a petition for exemption from the closed captioning requirements. If you have questions pertaining to this matter, please contact the FCC's Disability Rights Office at captioningexemption@fcc.gov.

Sincerely,

Roger Holberg
