

Reclassi fy The Internet As A Common Carrier.

Why does the FCC think that the Internet is something other than a utility, just like telephone, gas, water and sewer? I'll tell you why: Every person on the FCC has a standing offer for a multi-million dollar lobbying job as soon as they allow the monopoly they create by calling the internet something other than a common carrier. The FCC is preparing to allow our media to be censored by a handful of billionaires, and they know it. We know it too. We saw the multi million dollar reward that was bestowed on Michael Powell.
