

7521078712.txt

I am opposed to allowing cell phone use on planes. As a frequent flyer, I cannot imagine a cross country flight with someone talking on a phone next to me for five hours. It would be almost as bad as when smoking was allowed in part of the plane but not all - like it didn't go everywhere.