To whom it may concern:

This letter is intended as an official expression of interest in the Federal Communications Commission's proposed "Rural Broadband Experiments" program, as outlined in the January 31, 2014, FCC Technology Transitions Order. The town of Sneedville, Tennessee has a project proposal for funding consideration under this program. Attached is a short summary that outlines our project and our proposed funding request.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Harrison
Hancock County Mayor
