Re: CenturyLink's Petition for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. §160(c) from Dominant Carrier Regulation and Computer Inquiry Tariffing Requirements on Enterprise Broadband Services, WC Docket No. 14-9 – CenturyLink's Reply Comments in Support of its Petition for Forbearance

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Enclosed for filing please find the Highly Confidential version of CenturyLink's Reply Comments in Support of its Petition for Forbearance ("Reply Comments"), originally filed in this proceeding on February 28, 2014. CenturyLink is now refileing these Reply Comments in compliance with the procedures established in the Second Protective Order in this proceeding released on March 7, 2014.<sup>1</sup>

As with the Highly Confidential version of the Reply Comments filed on February 28, 2014, the enclosed version of the Reply Comments contains both Highly Confidential Information that is now subject to the Second Protective Order and Confidential Information that is subject to the initial Protective Order in this proceeding.<sup>2</sup> The enclosed Reply Comments and attachments accordingly bear the confidentiality legends authorized by both the Protective Order and the Second Protective Order at the top of each page. No other changes have been made to the Reply Comments or attachments or their pagination, and they bear the initial filing date of February 28, 2014. CenturyLink is not refileing the Confidential version of the Reply Comments, also initially filed on February 28, 2014, because there is no change to that filing or its confidentiality legend.

To comply with paragraph 5 of the Second Protective Order, CenturyLink also is refiling, through the Commission's Electronic Comment Filing System, a version of the Reply Comments redacted for public inspection. In addition, CenturyLink is providing two hard copies of the Highly Confidential version to Matt Warner of the Competition Policy Division of the Wireline Competition Bureau.

This letter includes no confidential information and the text is the same in both the non-redacted and redacted versions except for the confidentiality markings.

Please contact me via the above contact information or Melissa Newman in CenturyLink's Federal Relations office (202-429-3120) if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

/s/ Craig J. Brown
