

7521094269.txt

We support certain comments filed to MB Docket No. 13-249, in order to allow the use of synchronous transmission by AM stations.

The present situation, where the Commission allows some radio stations the use of synchronous boosters for experimental operations while withholding authorization to others, is clearly in detriment of the radio industry and the spirit of free competition. The Commission should allow the construction of permanently licensed AM synchronous boosters, provided that it complies with the existing interference criteria.