

7521094858.txt

I oppose this request. As an Amateur Radio operator who utilizes this band for experimentation, the proposed operations would seriously compromise this work. As most of this work involves very weak signals, the presence of digital signals with the proposed ERP levels would surely have an adverse impact on both terrestrial use at 10.368 GHz and the Amateur Satellite Service at 10.450 GHz.