

7521096959.txt

In the interest of public opinion, the current standards set by the FCC regarding profanity and nudity should be maintained. To allow public broadcasters to use profanity and nudity in their broadcasting when children with impressionable minds might see it would be undermining. I strongly oppose this change to the FCC. standards.