

7521097504.txt

I hope that FCC would continue to implement rules and regulations that promote and preserve Open Internet. In that light, the merger between Comcast and Time Warner Cable should be denied, because it would stifle competition, degrade services, limit choices, and increase cost to consumers.