

7521098283.txt

It is concerning to me that the public TV decency rules might be lowered. If anything, they should be more strict. There are so many places, easy to access places, that one can expose themselves to nudity and profanity. It doesn't need to be any more accessible on public TV, than what is already there. Please do not lower the standards, ....raise them.