

In my opinion a 2.8 KHz bandwidth would open the door to 2.8 KHz data signals on these CW/data sub-bands, and, thereby, create a bit of mayhem for CW and RTTY operators. Low bandwidth signals need to be encouraged, not discouraged. The passage of this amendment would set a bad precedent for amateur radio.