

Comment on RM-11708

RM-11708 should be rejected in part based on the possibility of 2.8 kHz-wide data signals making the CW sub-bands unusable. Operators have become quite adept at dodging fixed interference, but multiple digital signals at high symbol rates will manifest as an increase in the noise floor rather than fixed-frequency interference.

Thomas Duncan

Amateur License KG4CUY