

7521099081.txt

I urge you to enforce CABLECARD regulations. Consumers should have an open access to programming without having to use a cable company set-top-box. In addition the FCC should require simple user installation and improvements in cablecards to eliminate Tuning Adapters. The Tuning Adapters are a major source of problems.