

March 3, 2014

Communications Commission
445 12th Street SW.
Washington, DC 20554

Received & Inspected

MAR 11 2014

FCC Mail Room

Dear Director:

America's children are being exposed to pornographic products put out by these companies. (refer as trash). Complaints over the years have been filed against them, companies use for their defense, protection the Constitution Amendment I. Founders of the Constitution put the freedom of speech, and the press only for one specific purpose as follows:

They believe that everyone should be able to speak their minds and have a say in public hearings, such as campaigns, etc. they wanted everyone to feel included non-violently.

Amendment I was put in to protect the people from bad behaviour of Government. Gave them the right of free speech and press for a platform to speak out. Amendment, has nothing to do with any other purpose, and therefore no person or company can use it to protect their product or writing, art, inventions, etc.

The Constitution does however, protect all other rights of people who produce ideas, in whatever form they choose. Such as music, acting, writings, etc., in the Constitution Article I section 8:

Article one section 8 "To promote the Progress of Science and useful Arts, by securing for limited Times to Authors and inventors the exclusive Rights to their respective Writings and Discoveries;"

Further, the people in each State and community have the right to keep away any product harmful from their children. Trash produced hurt children therefore Laws are made by the people to keep them away where children are present. Such products produced by these trash companies are sold to specific adults, who have the right to purchase such products. Although, today such products are sold where children are with printing on label of such products cannot be sold to any person under the age of 18, is meaningless for the fact, stores do not enforce it, nor does the State! Businesses make money, politicians receive money from these companies. They are not for the children, they only care about themselves? FCC, you make the rules, make them the right rules to protect our children. You will comply with the Constitution, and no Court can say otherwise?

Any trash company has the right to have such shows in bars, theaters or movies displaying their products, but under no circumstances can any person under 18 be allowed to participate.

Sincerely yours.

EJ Marnell
Edward J. Marnell

5250 Case Ave. Apt. S128 - Pleasanton, CA 94566 - Tel: 925 484 1229