

Please keep the internet free from preferential treatment of the already well established ISPs and their associated businesses. You are going to ruin one of the most innovative technological advances of our time.