

7521099551.txt

Net neutrality is a huge contribution to democracy. To allow it to be controlled by profit dedicated and ideologically right wing dedicated corporations is fascistic, unconscionable and unacceptable.

The proposed merger of Comcast and Time-Warner should be disallowed under anti-trust laws as well as to preserve net neutrality. This combination would allow excessive price increases and censoring of which web sites we can access and must not be approved.