Re: International Settlements Policy Reform, IB Docket 11-80

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On April 24, 2014, James Talbot and I, of AT&T, met with James Ball, Kathleen Collins, and Kimberly Cook of International Bureau Policy Division to discuss the above-mentioned proceeding. In particular, we discussed the proposal to apply benchmark rates to indirect routing arrangements and reviewed the other available enforcement tools to protect the interest of U.S. consumers.

One electronic copy of this Notice is being submitted in the above-referenced proceeding in accordance with Section 1.1206 of the Commission's rules.

Sincerely,
