

7521100099.txt

I do not want Comcast and Time Warner to be able to merge. Comcast is already gouging the American public for television programming. Given even less competition and more market share will only give them more power to overcharge us. Why can't we just pay for the stations we want instead of having to take dozens we don't watch. Comcast needs more competition not less. That's the only way rates will not skyrocket.