

7521100122.txt

I strongly request that the internet is kept as is. No fast or slow sections or anything that would allow one group to have an increased chance of controlling the way we view the internet ie corporations, Businesses, groups with access to faster internet, etc... It is best for competition and for free flowing information, freedom of speech and just allowing all thoughts and ideas to be expressed and for anyone to access if they're interested.

Thank you
Tom