Ms. Marlene Dortch, Secretary
Federal Communications Commission
445 Twelfth Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Ms. Dortch:

RE: Ex Parte Notice. GN Docket No. 14-28, Protecting and Promoting the Open Internet

On April 25, 2014, the Communications Workers of America (CWA) issued the following statement in response to Chairman Tom Wheeler's April 24, 2014 blog, "Setting the Record Straight on the FCC's Open Internet Rules" and news reports of the Chairman's open Internet proposed rules.

Statement by CWA Senior Director George Kohl on reports of draft net neutrality rules being prepared by the Federal Communications Commission:

"Chairman Wheeler is appropriately following the direction of the courts in drafting net neutrality rules that will prohibit blocking and unreasonable discrimination, while expanding opportunities for the job creating national broadband build out Americans desire."

Sincerely,
