

7521101013.txt

I believe Net neutrality should be protected else the consumer and small business will be the ones to suffer because it gives more control over to companies that all-ready control and major portion of the market.