

7521101033.txt

Internet must be distributed equally between big business and small business if you want to keep the level of innovation it has. If you force web hosting companies to pay for bandwidth it will shut the door for many start ups such as my own. Please protect equal access of internet to everyone.