Listen. I get it. You used to work for comcast or time warner or somebody else. You've worked with the lobbyists, you know everyone in the industry, you just want to do your friends a favor, right? But do you really want to know, without any doubt, that you had a hand in destroying the greatest invention to ever grace our species on this good earth? I hope not.

Please. Please. PLEASE support net neutrality, ignore the pervasive political money coming in and do the right thing.
